PART II - CONFISCATION ORDERS

CONFISCATION ORDERS

9. Confiscation orders<sup>30</sup>

- (1) Where a defendant appears before the Supreme Court to be sentenced for one or more drug trafficking offences or relevant offences, the court shall proceed under this section—
- (a) on the application of the Director of Public Prosecutions; or

- (b) of its own motion where it considers it appropriate to do so.
- (2) The court shall first determine whether the defendant has benefited from criminal conduct.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act, a person has benefited from criminal conduct if he has at any time (whether before or after the commencement of this Act)—
  - (a) received any payment or other reward in connection with his or another person’s criminal conduct;
  - (b) obtained property as a result of or in connection with his or another person’s criminal conduct; or
  - (c) derived a pecuniary advantage as a result of or in connection with his or another person’s criminal conduct.
- (4) If the court determines that he has so benefited, it shall, before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence or (as the case may be) any of the offences concerned, make a confiscation order and determine in accordance with section 15 the amount to be recovered in his case under the order.
- (5) The court shall then, in respect of the offence or offences concerned—
  - (a) order the defendant to pay the amount of the confiscation order within such period as it may specify; and
  - (b) take into account the confiscation order before—
    - (i) imposing any fine on him;
    - (ii) making any other order involving any payment by him; and
    - (iii) making any order under section 37 of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1972 (forfeiture); but
  - (c) subject to paragraph (b), leave the confiscation order out of account in determining the appropriate sentence or other manner of dealing with the defendant.

[Section 10 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008; repealed by 2015 : 53 s. 2 effective 1 January 2016]

11. Postponed determinations

- (1) Where the court is proceeding under section 9<sup>32</sup>, but considers that it needs more information before-
  - (a) determining whether the defendant has benefited as mentioned in the section in question, or
  - (b) determining the amount to be recovered from him under a confiscation order, it may, for the purpose of enabling that information to be obtained, postpone making the determination for such period as it may specify.
- (2) More than one postponement may be made under subsection (1).

- (3) Unless satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances, the court shall not specify a period under subsection (1) which, by itself or taken together with any other postponement under this section, exceeds six months from the date of conviction.
- (4) Where the defendant appeals against his conviction, the court may on that account—
- (a) postpone making either or both of the determinations mentioned in subsection (1) for such period as it may specify; or
  - (b) where it has exercised its powers to postpone, extend the specified period.
- (5) A postponement or extension under subsection (1) or (4) may be made on the application of the Director of Public Prosecutions<sup>33</sup> or the defence or by the court of its own motion.
- (6) Unless the court is satisfied there are exceptional circumstances, any postponement or extension under subsection (4) shall not extend beyond three months after the appeal is determined or otherwise disposed of.
- (7) Where the court exercises its power under this section it may nevertheless proceed to sentence the defendant in respect of the offence in question or any such offences; and on making a postponed confiscation order by virtue of this section it may vary any fine or other order involving payment imposed on the defendant in accordance with subsection (5)(b) of section 9<sup>34</sup>.

- (1) For the purposes of this Act—
- (a) any payments or other rewards received, property obtained or pecuniary advantage derived by a person at any time (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct carried on by him or another person are his proceeds of criminal conduct; and
  - (b) the value of his proceeds of criminal conduct is the aggregate of the values of the payments or other rewards, property and pecuniary advantage.
- (2) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), the court shall make the required assumptions for the purpose—
- (a) of determining whether the defendant has benefited from criminal conduct; and
  - (b) if he has, of determining the value of his proceeds of criminal conduct.
- (3) The required assumptions are—
- (a) that any property appearing to the court—
    - (i) to have been held by the defendant at any time since his conviction; or
    - (ii) to have been transferred to him at any time since the beginning of the period of six years ending when the proceedings were instituted against him, was received by him as a payment or reward, property or a pecuniary advantage in connection with criminal conduct carried on by him;
  - (b) that any expenditure of his since the beginning of that period was met out of payments received by him in connection with criminal conduct carried on by him;
  - (c) that, for the purpose of valuing any property received or assumed to have been received by him at any time as such a reward, he received the property free of other interests in it.

(4) For the purposes of this Act, if a person derives a pecuniary advantage as a result of or in connection with the commission of an offence, he is to be treated as if he had obtained instead a sum of money equal to the value of the pecuniary advantage.

(5) The court shall not make any of the required assumptions in relation to any particular property or expenditure if—

- (a) that assumption is shown to be incorrect in the defendant's case; or
- (b) the court is satisfied that there would be a serious risk of injustice in the defendant's case if that assumption were to be made, and where the court, by virtue of this subsection, does not make one of the required assumptions it shall state its reasons.

(6) For the purpose of assessing the value of the proceeds derived by the defendant from criminal conduct in a case where a confiscation order has previously been made against him (under this Act or the Drug Trafficking Suppression Act 1988), the court shall leave out of account any such proceeds that are shown to the court to have been taken into account in determining the amount to be recovered under the previous order.

[Section 12 repealed and replaced by 2015:53 s. 3 effective 1 January 2016]

13. Statements

(1) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions<sup>36</sup> asks the court to proceed under section 9<sup>37</sup> he shall give the court, within such period as it may direct, a statement (a "prosecutor's statement") of matters which he considers relevant in connection with-

- (a) determining whether the defendant has benefited from criminal conduct<sup>38</sup>; or
- (b) assessing the value of his proceeds of criminal conduct.<sup>39</sup>

(2) Where the court proceeds under section 9<sup>40</sup> without the Director of Public Prosecutions<sup>41</sup> having asked it to do so, it may require him to give it a prosecutor's statement, within such period as it may direct.

(3) Where a prosecutor's statement has been given-

- (a) the Director of Public Prosecutions<sup>42</sup> may at any time give the court a further such statement; and
- (b) the court may at any time require him to give it a further such statement, within such period as it may direct.

(4) Where any prosecutor's statement has been given and the court is satisfied that it has been served on the defendant, it may require the defendant, within such period as it may direct-

- (a) to indicate the extent to which he accepts the allegations in the statement; and
- (b) so far as he does not accept any such allegation, to give particulars of any matters on which he proposes to rely;

and the court may for the purposes of the determination and assessment mentioned in subsection (1) treat any acceptance by the defendant as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(5) To the extent that the defendant fails in any respect to comply with a requirement under subsection (4), he may be treated for the purposes of this section as accepting every allegation in the statement.

(6) Where-

(a) there is tendered to the court by the defendant a statement as to any matters relevant to determining the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made; and

(b) the Director of Public Prosecutions<sup>43</sup> accepts to any extent any allegation in the statement, the court may, for the purposes of that determination, treat that acceptance as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(7) An allegation may be accepted or a matter indicated for the purposes of this section either orally before the court or in writing.

(8) No acceptance by the defendant under this section that proceeds have been derived by him from criminal conduct<sup>44</sup> shall be admissible in evidence in any proceedings for an offence.

[section 13 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008; subsections (1) and (8) amended by 2015:53 s. 4 effective 1 January 2016]

14. Provision of information by defendant

(1) For the purpose of obtaining information to assist it in carrying out its functions in relation to making a confiscation order, the court may order the defendant to give it such information in such manner and before such date as may be specified in the order.

(2) If the defendant fails without reasonable excuse to comply with any order under this section, the court may draw such inference from that failure as it considers appropriate.

(3) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions<sup>45</sup> accepts to any extent any allegation made by the defendant in giving to the court information required under this section, the court may treat that acceptance as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

[section 14 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008]

15. Amount to be recovered

(1) Subject to subsection (3), the amount to be recovered under a confiscation order shall be the amount the court assesses to be the value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct.<sup>46</sup>

(2) If the court is satisfied as to any matter relevant for determining the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made (whether by reason of the acceptance of an allegation made in a statement given under section 13 or made in the giving of information under section 14 or otherwise), the court may issue a certificate giving its opinion as to the matters concerned and shall do so if satisfied as mentioned in subsection (3).

(3) If the court is satisfied that the amount that might be realised at the time that the confiscation order is made is less than the amount the court assesses to be the value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct, the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order shall be the amount appearing to the court to be the amount that might be so realised.<sup>47</sup>

[Section 15 subsections (1) and (3) deleted and substituted by 2015:53 s. 5 effective 1 January 2016]

16. Protection of third party rights

(1) Where an application is made for a confiscation order, a person who asserts an interest in realisable property may apply to the court, before the confiscation order is made, for an order under subsection (2).

(2) If a person applies to the court for an order under this subsection in respect of his interest in realisable property and the court is satisfied-

(a) that he was not in any way involved in the defendant's criminal conduct; and

- (b) that he acquired the interest-
  - (i) for sufficient consideration; and
  - (ii) without knowing, and in circumstances such as not to arouse a reasonable suspicion, that the property was, at the time he acquired it, property that was involved in or was the proceeds of criminal conduct, the court shall make an order declaring the nature, extent and value (as at the time the order is made) of his interest.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), where a confiscation order has already been made, a person who asserts an interest in the property may apply under this subsection to the court for an order under subsection (2).

(4) Except with the leave of the court, an application shall not be made under subsection (3)-

- (a) by a person-
  - (i) who had knowledge of the application for a confiscation order before the order was made, or
  - (ii) who appeared at the hearing of that application; or
- (b) later than 28 days beginning with the day on which the confiscation order was made.

(5) A person who makes an application under subsection (1) or (3) shall give not less than seven days' written notice of the making of the application to the Director of Public Prosecutions<sup>48</sup> who shall be a party to any proceedings on the application.

[section 16 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008]

SUBSEQUENT PROCEEDINGS

17. Reconsideration of case

(1) This section applies where a defendant has appeared before the Supreme Court to be sentenced in respect of one or more drug trafficking or relevant offences but the court has not made a confiscation order because either—<sup>49</sup>

- (a) it did not proceed under this Act; or
- (b) it has made a determination that the defendant has not benefited from criminal conduct.

(2) If the Director of Public Prosecutions has evidence which was not previously available but which he believes would have led the court to determine that the defendant had benefited from criminal conduct, he may make an application to the court.<sup>50</sup>

(3) On such an application the court shall consider the evidence and if satisfied that the defendant had so benefited, the court shall make a confiscation order and order the payment of such amount as it thinks just in all the circumstances of the case, including in particular the amount of any fine or other orders for payment imposed on the defendant in respect of the offence or offences in question.

[section 17 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008; subsections (1) and (2) deleted and substituted by 2015:53 s. 6 effective 1 January 2016]

18. Revised assessment of proceeds of criminal conduct

(1) This section applies where the court has made a determination of the amount to be recovered under a confiscation order ("the current determination").

(2) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions is of the opinion that the real value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct was greater than their assessed value, he may apply to the court for the evidence on which he has formed his opinion to be considered by the court.<sup>51</sup>

(3) If, having considered the evidence, the court is satisfied that the real value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct is greater than their assessed value (whether because the real value at the time of the current determination was higher than was thought or because the value of the proceeds or benefit in question has subsequently increased), the court shall make a fresh determination of the amount to be recovered under a confiscation order.<sup>52</sup>

(4) In this section—

“assessed value” means the value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct as assessed by the court in accordance with section 15(1) of this Act; and

“real value” means the value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct which took place in the period by reference to which the current determination was made or in any earlier period.<sup>53</sup>

(5) Any determination by virtue of this section shall be by reference to the amount that might be realised at the time when the determination is made.

(6) For the avoidance of doubt, section 12(6) shall not apply in relation to any of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct taken into account in respect of the current determination.<sup>54</sup>

(7) If, as a result of making the fresh determination required by subsection (3), the amount to be recovered exceeds the amount set by the current determination, the court may substitute for the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order such greater amount as it thinks just in all the circumstances of the case.

(8) Where the court varies a confiscation order by virtue of this section it shall substitute for the term of imprisonment in default fixed under section 25(1) in respect of the amount to be recovered under the order such longer term as may be determined in accordance with that section in respect of the greater amount to be recovered under the order as varied.

[section 18 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008; subsections (2), (3) and (4) deleted and substituted and subsection (6) amended by 2015:53 s. 7 effective 1 January 2016]

19. Reconsideration etc: supplementary

(1) On an application under section 17 or 18, the court may take into account any payment or other reward, property or pecuniary advantage received by the defendant on or after the date of the—<sup>55</sup>

- (a) conviction (in the case of an application under section 17 by virtue of subsection (1)(a));
- (b) determination (in the case of an application under section 17 by virtue of subsection (1)(b)); or
- (c) current determination (in the case of an application under section 18), but only if the Director of Public Prosecutions shows that it was received by the defendant in connection with criminal conduct, on or before that date.

(2) In considering any evidence which relates to any payment or reward, property or pecuniary advantage in relation to criminal conduct to which subsection (1) applies, the court shall not make the assumptions which would otherwise be required by section 12.<sup>56</sup>

(3) No application shall be entertained by the court under section 17 or 18 if it is made after the end of the period of six years beginning with the date on which the defendant was convicted, or where the application relates to more than one conviction, the date of the latest conviction.

(4) Sections 13 and 14 apply, with such modifications as may be necessary, in relation to applications under sections 17 and 18 as they apply in relation to proceedings under section 9.<sup>57</sup>

[section 19 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008; subsections (1) and (2) deleted and substituted and subsection (4) amended by 2015:53 s. 8 effective 1 January 2016]

20. Increase in realisable property

(1) This section applies where, by virtue of section 15(3), the amount which a person is ordered to pay under a confiscation order is less than the amount assessed to be his proceeds of drug trafficking or benefit from relevant offences (as the case may be).

(2) If, on an application made-

- (a) by the Director of Public Prosecutions<sup>58</sup>, or
- (b) by a receiver appointed under section 28 or 31 in relation to the realisable property of the person in question, the court is satisfied that the amount that might be realised in the case of the person in question is greater than the amount taken into account in making the confiscation order (whether it was greater than was thought when the order was made or has subsequently increased), the court shall issue a certificate to that effect, giving its reasons.

(3) Where a certificate has been issued the Director of Public Prosecutions<sup>59</sup> may apply to the court for an increase in the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order; and on that application the court may-

- (a) substitute for that amount such amount not exceeding the amount assessed as the value referred to in subsection (1) as appears to the court to be appropriate having regard to the amount now shown to be realisable; and
- (b) increase the term of imprisonment fixed in respect of the confiscation order under section 25(1) if the effect of the substitution is to increase the maximum period applicable in relation to the order under that section.

[section 20 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008]

21. Inadequacy of realisable property

(1) If, on an application made in respect of a confiscation order,

- (a) by the defendant; or
- (b) by a receiver appointed under section 28 or 31, the court is satisfied that the realisable property is inadequate for the payment of any amount remaining to be recovered under the order, the court shall issue a certificate to that effect, giving its reasons.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)-

- (a) in the case of realisable property held by a person who has been adjudged bankrupt, the court shall take into account the extent to which any property held by him may be distributed among creditors; and
- (b) the court may disregard any inadequacy in the realisable property which appears to the court to be attributable, wholly or partly, to anything done by the defendant for the purpose of preserving any property held by a person to whom the defendant had, directly or indirectly, made a gift caught by this Act from any risk of realisation under this Act.

- (3) Where a certificate has been issued under subsection (1), the person who applied for it may apply to the court which made the confiscation order for the amount to be recovered under the order to be reduced.
- (4) The court shall, on an application under subsection (3)-
- (a) substitute for the amount to be recovered under the order such lesser amount as the court thinks just in all the circumstances of the case; and
  - (b) substitute for the term of imprisonment in default fixed under section 25(1) in respect of the amount to be recovered under the order a shorter term if such is determined in accordance with that section in respect of the lesser amount to be recovered under the order as varied.
- (5) Any person appearing to the court to be likely to be affected by any exercise of its powers under this section shall be entitled to appear before the court and make representations.

ABSCONDED PERSONS ETC

22. Confiscation order where defendant has absconded or died

- (1) Where a person has been convicted of one or more drug trafficking or relevant offences, on the application of the Director of Public Prosecutions<sup>60</sup> the court may make a confiscation order against him if satisfied that he has absconded or died.
- (2) Where proceedings for one or more drug trafficking or relevant offences have been instituted but not concluded, on the application of the Director of Public Prosecutions<sup>61</sup> the court may make a confiscation order against the defendant if satisfied that he has absconded, but shall not do so until after the period of two years beginning with the date which is, in the opinion of the court, the date on which the defendant absconded.
- (3) In any proceedings under this section-
- (a) section 12(2) shall not apply;

- (b) if it does so, shall reduce the term of imprisonment in default in accordance with section 25(1).

(3) Where the court reduces the amount to be recovered under a confiscation order it may, on the application of a person who held property which was realisable property, order compensation to be paid to him if satisfied that he has suffered loss as a result of the making of the confiscation order and if, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, it considers it appropriate to do so.

- (b) the Director of Public Prosecutions<sup>65</sup> does not intend to proceed with the prosecution.

(3) Where the court cancels a confiscation order under this section it may, on the application of a person who held property which was realisable property, order compensation to be paid to him if satisfied that he has suffered loss as a result of the making of the confiscation order and if, having regard to all the circumstances of the case it considers it appropriate to do so.

the term of imprisonment to be served in default of payment of the amount shall not begin to run until after the term mentioned in paragraph (b).

- (3) But the court may not make in a recovery order any provision in respect of any recoverable property if each of the conditions in subsection (4) or (as the case may be) (5) is met and it would not be just and equitable to do so.
- (4) The conditions referred to in subsection (3) are that—
- (a) the respondent obtained the recoverable property in good faith;
  - (b) he took steps after obtaining the property which he would not have taken if he had not obtained it or he took steps before obtaining the property which he would not have taken if he had not believed he was going to obtain it;
  - (c) when he took the steps, he had no notice that the property was recoverable property;
  - (d) if a recovery order were made in respect of the property, it would, by reason of the steps, be detrimental to him.
- (5) In deciding whether it would be just and equitable to make the provision in the recovery order where the conditions in subsection (4) are met, the court shall have regard to—
- (a) the degree of detriment that would be suffered by the respondent if the provision were made;
  - (b) the enforcement authority's interest in receiving the realised proceeds of the recoverable property.
- (6) A recovery order may sever any property.

- (8) A recovery order made by the court may provide for payment under section 36.1D of reasonable legal expenses that a person has reasonably incurred, or may reasonably incur, in respect of—
- (a) the proceedings under this Part in which the order is made; or
  - (b) any related proceedings under this Part.
- (9) If regulations under section 65(1A) apply to an item of expenditure, a sum in respect of the item is not payable under section 36.1G in pursuance of provision under subsection (8) unless—

- (2) The functions of the trustee are—
- (a) to secure the detention, custody or preservation of any property vested in him by the recovery order;

- (b) in the case of property other than money, to realise the value of the property for the benefit of the enforcement authority; and
- (c) to perform any other functions conferred on him by virtue of this Act.

(3) In performing his functions, the trustee acts on behalf of the enforcement authority and shall comply with any directions given by the enforcement authority.

(4) The trustee is to realise the value of property vested in him by the recovery order, so far as practicable, in the manner best calculated to maximise the amount payable to the enforcement authority.

(5) The trustee has the powers mentioned in Schedule 2.

(6) References in this section to a recovery order include an order under section 36.1D and references to property vested in the trustee by a recovery order include property vested in him in pursuance of an order under that section.

36Z Rights of pre-emption, etc.<sup>121</sup>

(1) A recovery order is to have effect in relation to any property despite any provision (of whatever nature) which would otherwise prevent, penalise or restrict the vesting of the property.

(2) A right of pre-emption, right of return or other similar right does not operate or become exercisable as a result of the vesting of any property under a recovery order.

(3) A right of return means any right under a provision for the return or reversion of property in specified circumstances.

(4) Where property is vested under a recovery order, any such right is to have effect as if the person in whom the property is vested were the same person in law as the person who held the property and as if no transfer of the property had taken place.

(5) References to rights in subsections (2) and (3) do not include any rights in respect of which the recovery order was made.

(6) This section applies in relation to the creation of interests, or the doing of anything else, by a recovery order as it applies in relation to the vesting of property.

36.1A Associated and joint property<sup>122</sup>

(1) Sections 36.1B to 36.1C apply if the court makes a recovery order in respect of any recoverable property in a case within subsection (2) or (3).

- (a) the property to which the proceedings relate includes property which is associated with the recoverable property and is specified or described in the originating summons; and
- (b) if the associated property is not the respondent's property, the summons or application has been served on the person whose property it is or the court has dispensed with service.

(3) A case is within this subsection if—

- (a) the recoverable property belongs to joint tenants; and
- (b) one of the tenants is an excepted joint owner.

(4) An excepted joint owner is a person who obtained the property in circumstances in which it would not be recoverable as against him; and references to the excepted joint owner's share of the recoverable property are to so much of the recoverable property as would have been his if the joint tenancy had been severed.

[Section 36.1A inserted by 2013:40 s. 6 effective 1 November 2013]

36.1B Agreements about associated and joint property<sup>123</sup>

(1) The recovery order may, instead of vesting the recoverable property in the trustee for civil recovery, require the person who holds the associated property or who is the excepted joint owner to make a payment to the trustee where—

- (a) this section applies; and
- (b) the enforcement authority (on the one hand) and the person who holds the associated property or who is the excepted joint owner (on the other) agree.

(2) A recovery order which makes any requirement under subsection (1) may, so far as required for giving effect to the agreement, include provision for vesting, creating or extinguishing any interest in property.

(3) The amount of the payment is to be the amount which the enforcement authority and that person agree represents—

- (a) in a case within section 36.1A(2), the value of the recoverable property;
- (b) in a case within section 36.1A(3), the value of the recoverable property less the value of the excepted joint owner's share.

(4) But if—

- (a) an interim receiving order applied at any time to the associated property or joint tenancy; and
- (b) the enforcement authority agrees that the person has suffered loss as a result of the interim receiving order, the amount of the payment may be reduced by any amount the enforcement authority and that person agree is reasonable, having regard to that loss and to any other relevant circumstances.

- (2) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) the original property means the property obtained through unlawful conduct;
  - (b) the original property, and any items of property which represent the original property, are to be treated as related to each other.
- (3) The court is not to make a recovery order if it thinks that the enforcement authority's right to recover the original property has been satisfied by a previous recovery order.
- (4) Subject to subsection (3), the court may act under subsection (5) if it thinks that—
- (a) a recovery order may be made in respect of two or more related items of recoverable property; but
  - (b) the making of a recovery order in respect of both or all of them is not required in order to satisfy the enforcement authority's right to recover the original property.
- (5) The court may in order to satisfy that right to the extent required make a recovery order in respect of—
- (a) only some of the related items of property; or
  - (b) only a part of any of the related items of property, or both.

(6) Where the court may make a recovery order in respect of any property, this section does not prevent the recovery of any profits which have accrued in respect of the property.

- (7) If—
- (a) an order is made under section 51 for the forfeiture of property which is later determined is recoverable property; and
  - (b) the enforcement authority subsequently seeks a recovery order in respect of related property, the order under section 51 is to be treated for the purposes of this section as if it were a recovery order obtained by the enforcement authority in respect of the forfeited property.

- (a) in pursuance of a judgment in civil proceedings (whether in Bermuda or elsewhere), the claimant has obtained property from the defendant (“the judgment property”);
  - (b) the claim was based on the defendant's having obtained the judgment property or related property through unlawful conduct; and
  - (c) the enforcement authority subsequently seeks a recovery order in respect of property which is related to the judgment property, the judgment is to be treated for the purposes of this section as if it were a recovery order obtained by the enforcement authority in respect of the judgment property.

- (9) If—

- (a) property has been taken into account in deciding the amount of a person's benefit from criminal conduct for the purpose of making a confiscation order under section 9<sup>127</sup>; and
- (b) the enforcement authority subsequently seeks a recovery order in respect of related property, the confiscation order is to be treated for the purposes of this section as if it were a recovery order obtained by the enforcement authority in respect of the property referred to in paragraph (a).

the enforcement authority's right to recover the original property is satisfied by the making of a recovery order in respect of either the original property or the representative property.

(3) If—

- (a) there is a part disposal of the original property; and
- (b) other property (the representative property) is obtained in place of the property disposed of,

the enforcement authority's right to recover the original property is satisfied by the making of a recovery order in respect of the remainder of the original property together with either the representative property or the property disposed of.

(4) In this section—

- (a) a part disposal means a disposal to which section 36E(1) applies,
- (b) the original property has the same meaning as in section 36.1E(2).

2. Seizure of cash

- (1) An authorised officer may seize any cash if he has reasonable grounds for suspecting that it is terrorist cash.
- (2) An authorised officer may also seize cash part of which he has reasonable grounds for suspecting to be terrorist cash if it is not reasonably practicable to seize only that part.

3. Detention of seized cash

- (1) While the authorised officer continues to have reasonable grounds for his suspicion, cash seized under this Schedule may be detained initially for a period of 48 hours.
- (2) The period for which the cash or any part of it may be detained may be extended by an order made by a magistrates' court; but the order may not authorise the detention of any of the cash -
- (a) beyond the end of the period of three months beginning with the date of the order; and
  - (b) in the case of any further order under this paragraph, beyond the end of the period of two years beginning with the date of the first order.
- (3) A justice of the peace or magistrate may also exercise the power of a magistrates' court to make the first order under sub-paragraph (2) extending the period.
- (4) An order under subparagraph (2) must provide for notice to be given to persons affected by it.
- (5) An application for an order under subparagraph (2) may be made by an authorised officer, and the court or justice or magistrate may make the order if satisfied, in relation to any cash to be further detained, that one of the following conditions is met.

(6) The first condition is that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the cash is intended to be used for the purposes of terrorism and that either -

- (a) its continued detention is justified while its intended use is further investigated or consideration is given to bringing (in Bermuda or elsewhere) proceedings against a person for an offence with which the cash is connected; or
- (b) proceedings against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected have been started (in Bermuda or elsewhere) and have not been concluded.

- (b) proceedings against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected have been started (in Bermuda or elsewhere) and have not been concluded.

4. Payment of detained cash into an account

(2) In the case of cash seized under paragraph 2(2) of this Part, the authorised officer must, on paying it into the account, release so much of it as is not attributable to terrorist cash.

(3) Subparagraph (1) does not apply if the cash is required as evidence of an offence or evidence in proceedings under this Schedule.

5. Release of detained cash

(1) This paragraph applies while any cash is detained under this Schedule.

(2) A magistrates' court may direct the release of the whole or any part of the cash if satisfied, on an application by the person from whom it was seized, that the conditions in paragraph 3 for the detention of cash are no longer met in relation to the cash to be released.

(3) An authorised officer may, after notifying the magistrates' court or justice or magistrate under whose order cash is being detained, release the whole or any part of it if satisfied that the detention of the cash to be released is no longer justified.

(4) But cash is not to be released -

- (a) if an application for its forfeiture under paragraph 6, or for its release under paragraph 9, is made, until any proceedings in pursuance of the application (including any proceedings on appeal) are concluded;
- (b) if (in Bermuda or elsewhere) proceedings are started against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected, until the proceedings are concluded.

(2) The court may order the forfeiture of the cash or any part of it if satisfied that the cash or part is terrorist cash.

(3) In the case of property earmarked as terrorist property which belongs to joint tenants one of whom is an excepted joint owner, the order may not apply to so much of it as the court thinks is attributable to the excepted joint owner's share.

(4) An excepted joint owner is a joint tenant who obtained the property in circumstances in which it would not (as against him) be earmarked; and references to his share of the earmarked property are references to so much of the property as would have been his if the joint tenancy had been severed.

7. Appeal against forfeiture

(1) Any party to proceedings in which an order is made under paragraph 6 ("a forfeiture order") who is aggrieved by the order may appeal to the Supreme Court.

(2) An appeal under subparagraph (1) must be made within the period of 30 days beginning with the date on which the order is made.

- (b) if a person appeals under that paragraph, before the appeal is determined or otherwise disposed of.

PART 4 - MISCELLANEOUS

(2) The application may be made in the course of proceedings under paragraph 3 or 6 or at any other time.

(3) If it appears to the court that -

- (a) the applicant was deprived of the cash claimed, or of property which it represents, by criminal conduct;
- (b) the property he was deprived of was not, immediately before he was deprived of it, property obtained by or in return for criminal conduct and nor did it then represent such property; and
- (c) the cash claimed belongs to him, the court may order the cash to be released to the applicant.

- (2) If, for any period after the initial detention of the cash for 48 hours, the cash was not held in an interest-bearing account while detained, the court may order an amount of compensation to be paid to the applicant.
- (3) The amount of compensation to be paid under sub-paragraph (2) is the amount the court thinks would have been earned in interest in the period in question if the cash had been held in an interest-bearing account.
- (4) If the court is satisfied that, taking account of any interest to be paid under this Schedule or any amount to be paid under subparagraph (2), the applicant has suffered loss as a result of the detention of the cash and that the circumstances are exceptional, the court may order compensation (or additional compensation) to be paid to him.
- (5) The amount of compensation to be paid under sub-paragraph (4) is the amount the court thinks reasonable, having regard to the loss suffered and any other relevant circumstances.
- (6) Any compensation ordered to be paid under this paragraph is to be paid out of the Confiscated Assets Fund
- (7) If a forfeiture order is made in respect only of a part of any cash detained under this Schedule, this paragraph has effect in relation to the other part.

- (1) A person obtains property through terrorism if he obtains property by or in return for acts of terrorism, or acts carried out for the purposes of terrorism.
- (2) In deciding whether any property was obtained through terrorism -
- (a) it is immaterial whether or not any money, goods or services were provided in order to put the person in question in a position to carry out the acts; and
  - (b) it is not necessary to show that the acts were of a particular kind if it is shown that the property was obtained through acts of one of a number of kinds, each of which would have been an act of terrorism, or an act carried out for the purposes of terrorism.

12. Property earmarked as terrorist property

- (1) Property obtained through terrorism is earmarked as terrorist property.
- (2) But if property obtained through terrorism has been disposed of (since it was so obtained), it is earmarked as terrorist property only if it is held by a person into whose hands it may be followed.
- (3) Property may be followed into the hands of a person obtaining it on a disposal by -
- (a) the person who obtained the property through terrorism; or
  - (b) a person into whose hands it may (by virtue of this subparagraph) be followed.

- (b) he obtains other property in place of it;

the other property represents the original property.

(3) If a person disposes of property which represents the original property, the property may be followed into the hands of a person who obtains it (and it continues to represent the original property).

14. Mixing property

(1) Subparagraph (2) applies if a person's property which is earmarked as terrorist property is mixed with other property (whether his property or another's).

(2) The portion of the mixed property which is attributable to the property earmarked as terrorist property represents the property obtained through terrorism.

(3) Property earmarked as terrorist property is mixed with other property if (for example) it is used -

- (a) to increase funds held in a bank account;
- (b) in part payment for the acquisition of an asset;
- (c) for the restoration or improvement of land;
- (d) by a person holding a leasehold interest in the property to acquire the freehold.

15. Accruing profits

(1) This paragraph applies where a person who has property earmarked as terrorist property obtains further property consisting of profits accruing in respect of the earmarked property.

(1) If -

- (a) a person disposes of property earmarked as terrorist property; and
- (b) the person who obtains it on the disposal does so in good faith, for value and without notice that it was earmarked;

(2) If -

- (a) in pursuance of a judgment in civil proceedings (whether in Bermuda or elsewhere), the defendant makes a payment to the plaintiff or the plaintiff otherwise obtains property from the defendant;
- (b) the plaintiff's claim is based on the defendant's criminal conduct; and
- (c) apart from this subparagraph, the sum received, or the property obtained, by the plaintiff would be earmarked as terrorist property;

the property ceases to be earmarked.

- (3) If -
- (a) under any law in force in Bermuda, a payment is made to any person, or a person otherwise obtains property, in pursuance of a compensation order or a restitution order made in respect of loss or injury suffered in consequence of criminal conduct or other misconduct; and
  - (b) apart from this subparagraph, the sum received, or the property obtained, would be earmarked as terrorist property;

the property ceases to be earmarked.

- (4) Where -
- (a) a person enters into a transaction to which paragraph 13(2) applies; and
  - (b) the disposal is one to which subparagraph (1) applies;

this paragraph does not affect the question whether (by virtue of paragraph 13(2)) any property obtained on the transaction in place of the property disposed of is earmarked.
